

THE BICENTENARY OF THE BIRTH OF THE BÁB

AN INVITATION

Please join us for a celebration of the 200th anniversary of the birth of the Báb, the Herald of the Bahá'í Faith.

Following a short introductory talk, we will be showing a film specially commissioned for the bicentenary. Titled Dawn of the Light, the 45-minute film follows Bahá'ís from different continents as they relate their own personal journeys of search and their discovery that God has sent two Divine Manifestations in this Day. And afterwards there will be a chance to chat and ask questions over a buffet meal.

The Báb, Herald of the Bahá'í Faith

In 1844, in the city of Shiraz in the south of Iran, the Báb announced that He was the bearer of a message destined to transform humanity's spiritual life. His mission was to prepare the way for the coming of a second Messenger from God, greater than Himself, who would usher in an age of peace and justice.

Bahá'u'lláh—the “Glory of God”—is the Promised One foretold by the Báb and all of the Divine Messengers of the past. Bahá'u'lláh's Revelation from God to humanity outlines a framework for the development of a global civilization which takes into account both the spiritual and material dimensions of human life.

This year's worldwide celebrations of the bicentenary of the birth of the Bab have given rise to diverse artistic expressions inspired by the lives and teachings of these Twin Luminaries, the Báb and Bahá'u'lláh: from dance to song to film.
