

World Peace: The Path Towards a Just Global Order

The Bahá'í Community of Maidenhead invites you to an online event to mark the 2020 Week of Prayer for World Peace (11-18 October) and the 75th anniversary of the founding of the United Nations.

Its founders intended that the United Nations should be the institution to end war. Its primary purpose was, and remains, to maintain world peace and security. Our presentation will draw upon the recent statement from the Bahá'í International Community marking the UN's 75th anniversary, which sets out a Bahá'í perspective on humanity's path towards a just world order and universal peace.

We'll start by sharing some Bahá'í prayers and readings on the theme of peace. Afterwards there will be a chance to comment and to ask questions.

Alas, no cakes, no refreshments, no chatting – but we hope that you will join us online.

Wednesday 14 October

7:30pm – 8:30pm

Zoom link: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/88384384495>

There is a 100 person limit for this Zoom so it would be enormously helpful if you could drop us a note in advance to say that you are hoping to attend. We may need to upgrade! Thanks. Please contact Mike Gammage, Secretary of the Bahá'í Community of Maidenhead: email: bahais.maidenhead@gmail.com

The Week of Prayer for World Peace: www.weekofprayerforworldpeace.co.uk/

Website of the worldwide Bahá'í community: www.bahai.org